ABOUT

"Sports Global Tourism: Driving National Development" is an ambitious initiative organized by a joint initiative of the Global NRN Foundation, Hanyang University, MIT foundation, and the Embassy of Nepal in Seoul, Republic of Korea. The convention is dedicated to unlocking the immense potential of sports tourism for Nepal's economic, cultural, and social advancement. Anchored by the theme "Leveraging SPORTS tourism for Economic, Cultural, and Social Advancement," the convention seeks to explore innovative strategies that harness the power of sports to propel national progress.

By bringing together governmental entities, industries, and leaders committed to sports tourism-driven development, the event aims to establish a dynamic platform for knowledge exchange, experience sharing, and the cultivation of innovation and collaboration in pursuit of common national development goals. The integration of these objectives into sports global tourism conventions not only facilitates knowledge exchange but also positions nations to leverage the transformative power of sports and tourism, contributing significantly to the realization of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and fostering comprehensive national development on a global scale.
